Celtic Castles Crowned Best Castle Stays & Wedding Venue Specialist 2025 by SME News Magazine

Celtic Castles Limited is delighted to announce its latest accolade - being named Best Castle Stays and Wedding Venue Specialist 2025 in SME News Magazine's 2025 Business Elite Awards. This marks the company's third industry award this year, recognising once again Celtic Castles' unwavering dedication to creating unforgettable castle stays and wedding experiences across the UK, Ireland and beyond.

For almost 30 years, Celtic Castles has been the trusted name for travellers seeking authentic luxury in historic surroundings. From romantic castle weddings to exclusive getaway stays, the company has earned its world-class reputation by pairing heritage charm with seamless, personalised service.

"Our passion has always been about bringing people closer to history - but in the most comfortable, memorable way possible," said Roger Masterson, Founder and Co-Director of Celtic Castles, known within the industry as The Castle Man. "This award is a wonderful testament to our team's commitment to excellence and the trust our customers place in us to help create extraordinary moments."

Founded in 1998 and based in Halifax, Celtic Castles has grown from a visionary idea into an international leader in castle-based hospitality. The company now represents over 100 castles across the UK, Ireland, and France, from exclusive-use, catered castles to self-catered and castle hotels, offering everything from grand wedding venues to intimate luxury retreats.

What sets Celtic Castles apart is its combination of technology and the incomparable human touch. Through bespoke booking systems, smart use of AI, and a highly personal approach, Celtic Castles ensures every guest experience is handled with care and precision

Beyond travel, Celtic Castles is committed to heritage and community, supporting local economies, contributing to charitable initiatives, and partnering with castles dedicated to preserving historic landmarks for future generations.

Looking ahead, Celtic Castles continues to evolve its storytelling through immersive content, video, and international outreach, while staying true to its mission — keeping history alive through extraordinary hospitality and truly authentic experiences.
